Annual Report – 2008

We are continuing with our informal pub evenings at the Fox Inn, the first Wednesday in every month. If you haven't been along yet why not join us at our next one.

Our monthly Sunday evening meetings have yielded a lively range of topics with some stimulating guest speakers.

Annual Debate – This year's debate on the motion "Britain needs nuclear power" on October 31st was highly stimulating and several of us found ourselves voting differently to how we expected. Malcolm Wicks MP, former Minister for Energy and Jean Llewellyn, Chief Executive of the National Academy for Skills (including Chair of the Nuclear Skills Advisory Group) spoke for the motion; and against the motion Nathan Argent

Greenpeace spokesperson for nuclear issues and Antony Froggatt Independent Consultant on EU energy policy. Former Mayor of Farnham, Carole Cockburn, chaired the lively contributions from the floor. The motion was narrowly lost by one vote.

- Around £300 was raised shared between Oxfam and Disability Challengers.

Local Development –The BHA are concerned about a lack of representation at local level for non-religious people which means that, unlike religious people who can be consulted through recognised methods of communication, non-religious people's needs and views can be excluded from decision making bodies.

Spurred on by this, Farnham Humanists are now included in Surrey County Council's Equality and Diversity contacts list.

David Savage and Jennie Johnson attended the South East South East England Faiths Forum event on 26th November as the only Humanists present out of a 100 or so present. It appeared that a Government objective was to use interfaith groups to encourage local authorities to cooperate with faith groups to provide 'welfare services'. David highlighted that the role of the non-religious to provide such services should be fully recognised.

- Through communication with Monica Wambu, Surrey County Council senior manager for equality, and Councillor Helyn Clack, Executive Member for Safer and Stronger Communities, David and Jennie also attended a Surrey County Council exploratory meeting on Monday 8 December 2008 to consider the possible membership of an external equality group and to discuss how such a group might work. The meeting was chaired by County Councillor Denise Saliagopoulos, Executive Member for Policy and Performance, who has equality and diversity within her remit. Council provided services and means of consultation will be

* Conferences – David Savage and Jennie Johnson attended the local Humanist groups annual meeting known as GRAM on 15th November. The agenda covered Humanist Schools in Uganda, recruitment of new members and Hanne Stinson detailing BHA current objectives. Updates were provided on the Science Group, Local Group Support and the Humanism Promotion and Marketing Group. The extended buffet lunch provided good opportunities to network with people from other groups from across the country.

A group of Farnham Humanists attended the National Secular Society AGM on 29th November and treated themselves to a meal afterwards.

* SACRE – Jim Herrick attended a meeting of the Surrey Standing Advisory Council for RE in November. It was agreed that the next SACRE meeting on 3rd February would start with a presentation by a few Humanists of what it means to be a Humanist in Surrey today. Any comments for inclusion please contact Jennie Johnson jennie.johnson@virgin.net or Jim Herrick Jim1herrick@aol.com

* Humanist Chaplaincy support - After some years of very slow progress, David Savage and Alec Leggatt met the C of E Chaplain of Send Woman's' Prison for a friendly and constructive meeting about establishing a non-religious chaplaincy role. We will develop this role, providing the prison with Humanist books, leaflets and attending the Prison's regular 'Faith Fairs', as well as visiting individual prisoners when requested. As far as we are aware this is the first time there has been an agreement to establish a non-religious chaplaincy role in prisons in England.

* Ceremonies - Alec Leggatt and Barbara Burfoot continue to provide officiant support for Funerals, Weddings and Baby Namings. (Alec conducted 15 funerals and 3 weddings in the locality last year) Apart from providing a social service BHA officiants gain a great sense of fulfilment when the many unsolicited compliments arrive, especially from the bereaved family. If you would consider training as an officiant, talk to Alec or Barbara or go to the BHA website.

* Articles/Letters in the press – A write up of the debate produced by Farnham Humanists was published in the Herald and the Surrey and Hants Post Gazette which was accompanied by an excellent photo of the speakers in front of our banner.

Remembrance day – Sunday 9th November 2008 – As for the past two years, members from Farnham Humanists attended the 11:00 ceremony at the Farnham Memorial and laid a wreath. A warming coffee was very welcome afterwards.

Contact with other Humanist Groups – Several Farnham Humanists participated in South Hampshire Humanists' lively debate on 30th November on "Christianity – A force for Good?" with main speakers are Richard Harries, former Bishop of Oxford, and Julian Baggini, Philosopher and Humanist.
