

Humanists share a non-religious ethical outlook and seek a more open, just and caring society.

Farnham Humanists volunteer and engage in the local community and represent non-religious views to provide a balance in society and education. We are a partner group of Humanists UK, find out more at www.humanism.org.uk

Programme for 2018 (as at 2/4/18)

Please check our website www.farnham.humanist.org.uk for the most up to date programme

We generally have two meetings a month and in addition arrange some special events during the year.

Our Sunday meetings are held at 7 for 7:30pm at Daniel Hall, Farnham, Long Garden Walk, GU9 7HX.

On the first Wednesday of the month we meet informally from 8pm at The Jolly Sailor pub, 64 West St, Farnham, Surrey GU9 7EH for a chat and a drink. It's an opportunity to get to know each other better and often involves lively discussion!
